CAPTAIN MAX

Captain Max is a passionate sailor with years of experience navigating the Caribbean waters. Starting with his own boat, he's created unforgettable memories and has built a deep connection with the sea. Now, Captain Max is sharing his love for sailing with Amura's guests, offering them a unique and personalized experience on the water.

CAPTAIN DAN

Dan grew up in New Zealand with the ocean as his backyard and went on to sail his own boat across the Pacific. Those years shaped his relaxed confidence on the water and his natural way of reading the sea. Sailing has always been about freedom, connection, and good company for Dan and that's exactly what he brings to Amura. Guests are invited to slow down, settle in, and experience life on the water through the eyes of someone who truly lives it.

Crew

FIRST MATE KATE

Kate has spent years chasing the ocean, sailing across the Pacific and feeling most at home on the water. With experience living and working on boats, she knows that the best moments at sea aren't rushed, they're shared. From lazy swims and sunset sails to good music and easy laughter, Kate brings a warm, fun-loving energy to life onboard Amura. Her goal is simple: make sure every guest feels relaxed, looked after, and has an unforgettable time on the ocean.

CHEF MAE

Originally from Cuba, Mae brings a warm presence and strong work ethic to every charter. Known for her hard work and attentive service, she ensures glasses are never empty and guests always feel cared for. Her culinary creations are as delicious as they are beautifully presented, making every meal an experience to remember.
